A few verses in Zikorean Poetry Structure

Defining Ziket and Zinet

A Ziket has two poetic lines, the first line should contain 1 to 8 syllables and the second line should be of 1 to 5 syllables or vice versa. Ziket can be written in unrhymed or rhymed poetry.

A Zikelite consists of two or more than two Zikets.

A Zinet has one poetic line that has 1 to 5 syllables to deliver a theme.

A Zinlite consists of two or more than two Zinets.

A Zeelite consists of two or more than two Zikets followed by one or more than one Zinets, depending on the mood and revelation.

Source:: https://allpoetry.com/topic/show/269075133-How-to-Write-Zikorean-Poetry Effort made to define the meaning of a few words from non-English* vocabularies *in the Zikorean Poetry Structure.

Hope you will enjoy reading

~~~
~~~

Aiutati che Dio t'aiuta
(Italian Proverb)

Its meaning is "Help yourself so that God will help you."

Self-sufficiency is good thing and can pave the way

pave the way for more assistance from higher power!

It's a maxim to encourage people

To encourage to attempt to solve their own problems.

~X~X~

Pois é
(A Portuguese Word)

It's an expression of agreement.

Literally, "pois" means "therefore",
"because", "as" or "then"

(basically it links two statements

in which one is the consequence of another)

"É" means "is" (the verb to be conjugated

Pois é is a positive confirmation

that's injected into a conversation

It's also something people say

when they don't know what else to say.

~X~X~

Wahala
(A Nigerian Word)

Wahala means 'Trouble', and its meaning can change

Meaning can change depending on context.

When said 'No wahala, they could mean 'Yes' / 'No problem'.

Flip side is 'Wahala dey o', means there is problem

It is rare for this word to stand alone

except to express surprise at a situation.

what's disconcerting
~X~X~

Kuuliza si ujinga
(A Swahili Proverb)

Its translation is asking isn't stupidity

Its meaning it's always okay to ask questions.

When one simply wants to learn something

new or when one is confused about something

it's important to ask and to remind them

Asking doesn't make one stupid to do so.

Being curious is a good trait!

This proverb reminds one to do just that: ask

There is nothing wrong with asking and knowing new things.

~X~X~

Net khuda bez dobra
(A Russian Proverb)

Literally it means there's no bad without the good.

Whatever trouble comes your way, don't let it spoil mood

Even most difficult issues might have advantage

"Every cloud has a silver lining."

Can't you recall proverb, just keep your chin up.
~X~X~

Ajebutter
(A Nigerian Word)

Originally this term used to describe butter

It's certain kind of really expensive butter

that average Nigerian could not afford

It refers to people who are very well off

Simply refers to one who is born with silver spoon

It can be loosely translated to mean "bourgeoisie"

Used as Nigerian slang to about rich spoilt kid.

~X~X~

Meglio solo che male accompagnato
(An Italian Proverb)

Means "Better alone than in bad company."

Their culture embraces time spent with friends, family

It's their lifestyle in their culture

filled with long, leisurely dinners festive parties

Proverb shows many are welcome to join in the fun

but bad company need not show up at the door

Avoid spending time with negative people

it's best to remain alone

Rest assured alone time is much superior to languishing in a less-than-fabulous group!

~X~X~

Fado
(A Portuguese Word)

In their culture, fado is related to music

It's name for a traditional form of music.

What many don't know it also means fate, destiny

something that is supposed to happen

no matter what actions occur beforehand.

~X~X~

Engraçado/a
(A Portuguese Word)

Engraçado/a is an adjective

that can be used for a person place, or thing

but it can mean funny, cool, or any compliment.

Calling engraçado to a female is treated as positive

~X~X~

Go-saeng Ggeut-eh naki eun-da
(A Korean Proverb)

Literal meaning happiness comes with hard work

Truly at the end of hardship comes happiness.

It's believed with hard work, there is always success

Despite constraints never think of giving up; Fight back.
~X~X~

Gbosa
(A Nigerian Word)

This Nigerian word is a Slang

This slang is an action word means to punch or slap

but can be as well refer to the sound made by punch

when someone or something is being punched

It also used when describing the sound of a punch
~X~X~

Chema chajiuza, kibaya chajitembeza
(A Swahili proverb)

It means a good thing sells, a bad thing advertises.

When something is innately good it will sell

It will get the recognition it deserves

There will be no need to do anything

This proverb is good reminder to all of us when one does things because s/he is committed a good output comes, it will get the recognition

When one does things half-heartedly it takes much effort

To get attention it deserves for the work because ingenuity can be felt and seen.

~X~X~

Il mattino ha l'oro in bocca
(An Italian Proverb)

Its translation "The early bird catches the worm."

In Italian this one tells us to act early in order to get ahead of others

That will probably ensure some measure of success.
~X~X~

Slovo ne vorobey: vyletit — ne poymayesh'
(A Russian Proverb)

The literal meaning is as under:

The word is not a sparrow, it'll fly out - you won't catch

One should be careful with what's said Words can hurt.

"What's said can't be unsaid." one must take utmost care
~X~X~

Lindeza
(A Portuguese Word)

Lindeza is a term to describe someone

it can mean niceness and /or prettiness

It's more than physical beauty.
~X~X~

Eye-lyak
(A Bulgarian Word)

It meaning is being idle and worry free

This untranslatable word comes from Plovdiv city

Describes its inhabitants' carefree lifestyle

Means people don't take anything seriously

Enjoying life in a non-rushed and easy manner
With the notorious summer heat in Plovdiv

people practicing there aylyak (idleness)

Aylyak is very common at that time

locals spend hours in the shade at cafés or idly walk back and forth on main pedestrian street.

~X~X~

****

Plovdiv city

****

Plovdiv is an ancient city

It's located in southern Bulgaria.

The city was built around 7 hills

It's the second largest city in Bulgaria

~X~X~

Control(Ctrl) P (A Nigerain Word)

Word is in the Nigerian slang lexicon

'control P' is a term used by them

when one takes a situation too personally

An example will make it clear

'na control P dey worry am'
means

the person taking things too personally.

~X~X~

Kuishi kwingi ni kuona mengi
(A Swahili Proverb)

Literal translation: To live long is to see much

It means with age also comes experience.

It's known with age comes many more lessons, and wisdom

This proverb teaches when we grow older, we gain

fruitful and memorable experiences.
~X~X~

El que mucho abarca poco aprieta
(A Spanish Proverb)

Meaning is "Don't bite off more than you can chew."

One who embraces a lot, can't keep it together

In other words, he who grasps too much grasps too little

It also means if one attempts to do too many things, s/he won't do any of them right ~X~X~

Shlya-ya
(A Bulgarian Word)

This specific word means to amble

Ambling is an activity which can be both meaningless and meaningful at the same time

While aimlessly roaming the streets one may help stranger

Or one might come across a friend after long time

Or may be one tries to clear his or her mind

Best part leaving home with no proper intention

And just putting everything in the hands of fate.

~X~X~

Una casa senza donna è come una lanterna senza lume
(An Italian Proverb)

Translation is "A house without a woman is like a lantern without he light."

Means that a woman elevates the character

space and value of a house.

She makes a house a home something that's highly valued.
~X~X~

Povtoreniye — mat' ucheniya
(A Russian Proverb)

Meaning "Repetition is the mother of learning"

When it comes to learning, one must be talented to remember something on the first try.

Don't shy away from reviewing again and again

"Practice makes perfect."
~X~X~

Mágoa
(A Portuguese Word)

Its meaning is sorrow
or grief

Means to feel hurt physically / emotionally

sadness, grief, sorrow.
~X~X~

Mossol
(A Korean Word)

Someone who has never had a boyfriend or girlfriend

Mossol is shortened version of word (motae sollo)

The first word (motae) means
"maternal womb."

The second word sollo sounds like
"solo"

which tells a person who is unaccompanied

Means one has never been in a relationship.

Putting together got "someone alone since birth."
~X~X~

No hay mal que dure 100 años
(A Spanish Proverb)

Its meaning is 'Nothing lasts forever'.

There is no evil that lasts 100 years

No matter how bad a situation

It will never last forever.
~X~X~

Coo-coo-vee-tsah

(A Bulgarian Word)

It says about a bird cuckoo

Besides this word is also used for something else

Used as a not-so-nice way to say someone crazy.

Bulgarians even have a verb

What's derived from cuckoo that means 'to go crazy'.

~X~X~

Haraka haraka haina Baraka
(A Swahili Proverb)

Its translation is "To hurry has no blessing"

Meaning: Haste makes waste

When one does things out of rush and quickness

it tends not to reap the best results.

Therefore, it becomes a waste and it will fail.

But when one does things slowly but surely

And knows how to wait the chances of having a good result are higher and better!

~X~X~

Tra moglie e marito non mettere il ditto
(An Italian Proverb)

It's very famous Italian proverb

Translation: "Don't put a finger between a couple"

Meaning simple:Don't get involved in couple affairs.

This one means the bond linking spouses is tight one so don't even attempt to come between them.

If husband and wife argue or if they quarrel

we must not get in the way, we must not meddle.

~X~X~

Il tempo passa e non ritorna
(An Italian Proverb)

Its translation: "Time passes and does not return."

This adage advises to recognize the truth

Time is limited and passes too fast

So, use whatever time you have wisely.
~X~X~

Bez truda ne vytashchish' i rybku iz prude
(A Russian Proverb)

It means in simple words
"No pain, no gain."

Without effort one can't pull a fish out of pond.

message here is one needs to put efforts for result.
~X~X~

Ukitaka kula nguruwe, kula aliyenona
(A Swahili Proverb)

It means "If you want to eat a pig, eat a fat one"

It says if you do something,
do it in full force

It reminds when people do things out of devoir

results may not be perfect as desired

rather give your best, do it wholeheartedly

do it with your full commitment, time, and effort.
~X~X~

Купон (pronounce it like coupon)
(A Bulgarian Word)

This Bulgarian word means party

Partying is one of the things they do best.

They have so many official days off

like national days religious holidays

or national memorial days

other occasions like birthdays and name days

They are always ready to throw parties to enjoy.
~X~X~

Jara
(A Nigerian Word)

Jara is derived from the Yoruba language.

It means to give a freebie after something bought

Like, when serving a dish at a restaurant

Customers usually ask for 'jara'

at that point the seller might add an extra meat piece or scoop of rice at his or her discretion.

~X~X~

Наздраве (naz-drah-veh)

(A Bulgarian Word)

This term literally means
'To (your) health!'

It's most important words one learns in Bulgaria

It's told learning to drink like them isn't easy feat.

there are rules, one need to follow

like, not to raise glass when it doesn't contain alcohol

to look people in the eyes when you say 'Cheers!'

not to say no when host offers another

glass of rakia, the local homemade brandy

nazdrave is also used to say 'Bless you!'

~X~X~

Shi-jaki bani-da
(A Korean Proverb)

Literal meaning is 'Starting is half the task'

This is to tell one a good start is too important for a project/activity competition

~X~X~

El dinero llama al dinero
(A Spanish Proverb)

It means – Money calls more money

With more money, comes more opportunities.

It implies the power of money

it makes easier for those who have money

to increase its flow with means to undertake something,

whether it be cash or valuables

One can make more profit / bargain better terms

~X~X~

Amebo
(A Nigerian Word)

It's slang word in Nigerian Lexicon

used to describe a 'loose mouthed' person

Refers to person who likes to gossip / spread gossip

Also indicates rumours involving the private lives of other people.

~X~X~

Meervoudigepersoonlijkheidsstoornis
(A Dutch Word)

It is the longest Dutch word in the dictionary.

This Dutch word is 35
letters long.

multiple personality disorder it means

this disorder characterized by "switching"

Switching to alternate identities.
Symptoms like inability to recall

like important personal information

Distinct ways of talking / acting for each psyche.
~X~X~

ÀGÀNRÁNDÌ
(A Yoruba word)

It means a small little door

That's attached to entrance or backyard door

Yoruba a language spoken in West Africa

mainly in Southwestern, central Nigeria.

It is spoken by the ethnic Yoruba people

Number of Yoruba speakers 45 million

Plus about 2 million second -language speakers.
~X~X

Shoo-shohn
(A Bulgarian Word)

It means a wool sock

Most Bulgarian children are blessed with a grandma

Grandma incessantly knits wool socks for grand children

Because wool socks are mostly felt outdated,

they are rarely actually worn by kids

though love woven into them is appreciated.
~X~X~

Maga/Mugu
(A Nigerian Word)

This is a term used to describe someone as a fool

or someone who is gullible or being conned.

like, 'you be maga' means
'you're a fool'.
~X~X~

Gadge or Priyatel / Priyatelka (Bulgarian Words)

Whether one has girlfriend / boyfriend two main ways to say

Gadge or Priyatel /priyatelka.

They don't mean exactly the same thing.

Gadge is unisex term it's for relationship

But that isn't very serious used by young people

when joking / keeping informal conversation

Calling someone a priyatel, implies a deeper relationship that's more serious

~X~X~

Yab
(A Nigerian Word)

This is another slang mostly used by young younger people use it in a playful manner

It means to diss or make fun of someone.

Like, 'loves to yab people' means
'loves to diss people'.
~X~X~

Afbellen
(A Dutch Word)

The word roughly translates to "calling it off."

Refers to when one cancels on friend last-minute

cause s/he would like to be in bed watching movie

also about act of calling people to cancel

Like calling someone to cancel get-together

what s/he had planned with family.

~X~X~

Utepils
(A Norwegian Word)

It's pronounced as
"OOH-ta-pilz"

It's a combination of
'Ute' and 'Lager'

'ute' means 'out, outside, outdoors' and 'pils' means 'lager'

word that literally translates to 'outdoors lager'

An utepils is a beer that's drank outside

An utepils isn't just any beer drank outside

It actually means a beer enjoyed

while sitting out in the sun, in a beer garden

or outdoor seating area of a bar or café.

It can be enjoyed while out on a hike

or while taking a break on the slopes.

~X~X~

Plaatsvervangende schaamte
(A Dutch Word)

It's that feeling of shame one experiences

That caused by someone else's (stupid) actions.

A second-hand embarrassment. a worst feelings.

Term "vicarious shame" is one way of putting it.
~X~X~

Leedvermaak

(A Dutch Word)

It's the complete opposite of Plaatsvervangende schaamte.

Describes feeling of enjoying someone's misfortune.

same as German version of the phrase — "schadenfreude".

~X~X~

Tsundoku
(A Japanese Word)

Refers to phenomenon of acquiring

Reading materials but letting them pile up in one's home without reading them

Also used to refer to books ready for reading

later when they are on a bookshelf

It combines elements of tsunde-oku and dokusho

dokusho means reading

tsunde-oku describes one who owns a lot of unread

literature
~X~X~

Bilita Mpash
(A Bantu Word)

There are some wonderful words that have no proper English translation.

Like, the Bantu phrase Bilita Mpash

which means an amazing pleasant dream

it is the opposite of a nightmare.

~X~X~